Final Assessment Report: Executive Summary

Programs Reviewed: BA, BAH, MA, MA (Specialization in Political and Legal Thought), PhD in Philosophy

In accordance with Queen's University Quality Assurance Processes (QUQAP), this Final Assessment Report provides a synthesis of the external evaluation, internal responses and assessment of the above programs. This report identifies the significant strengths of the program, and opportunities for program improvement. It sets out and prioritizes the recommendations that have been selected for implementation.

An implementation plan is attached that identifies

- x who will be responsible for acting on and monitoring progress on the recommendations,
- x any resource or governance implications resulting from the recommendations, and
- x timelines for implementation of the recommendations.

Summary of Review

- 1) The department's self-study was reviewed by the Dean, Faculty of Arts and Science, Vice-Provost and Dean, School of Graduate Studies and the Vice-Provost (Teaching and Learning). It was approved on 17 February 2017.
- 2) The review team visit took place on 23-24 March

- 5) The Senate Cyclical Program Review Committee considered all the documentation at its meeting on 12 June 2017, and reported to the Provost on the programs' strengths, opportunities for enhancement, and recommendations for improvement.

The following strengths were noted:

- x Very high quality graduate program. Noteworthy are interdisciplinary initiatives such as the Political and Legal Thought option in the MA program .
- x International stature in graduate programming in areas of strength such as Political Philosophy, Applied Ethics, Feminist Philosophy and Ethics .
- x International stature in some research areas
- x Commitment to excellence in teaching at the undergraduate level.
- x A wide variety of course offerings and an increasing number of courses that deal with contemporary issues.

The following opportunities for enhancement were noted:

- x Changes to the manner in which undergraduate courses are planned and how teaching assignments are made.
- x Review of the undergraduate curriculum.
- x Strategic increase in faculty member complement to ensure the Department can maintain its excellent undergraduate and graduate programming.
- x Enhance the undergraduate student experience by improving the culture of the Department (e.g. more interaction between undergraduate and graduate students).

The academic programs in the Department of Philosophy have been approved to continue.

Date of next review: 2024-2025.
