

The School of Nursing is encouraged to continue to:

- sustain low rates of attrition and address any variances when they occur
- sustain effective monitoring and management of graduate students' time-to-completion
- seek optimal complement of tenure-track and adjunct positions
- continue efforts to convert didactic lectures into small-group inquiry-based learning discussions and on-line formats seek partnerships with community agencies to ensure Queen's nursing students have

Summary of the Reviewer's Recommendations with the School's and Deans' Responses

Graduate Program

3. Although there have been no reported problems, it is recommended that the School of

SON and School of Graduate

Director SON, Dean SGS and Dean FHS

Dean of the School of Graduate Studies'

[Redacted text]

[Redacted text]

[Redacted text]

[Redacted text]