

STRATHY STUDENT CONFERENCE GRANTS
Strathy Language Unit, Queen's University, Kingston, ON

INFORMATION

The Strathy Language Unit offers competitive conference grants for undergraduate and graduate students at Queen's University presenting research on Canadian English. Grants are available in any discipline whose work examines or highlights an aspect of the structure or usage of the English language in Canada.

The grants cover transportation, lodging, and conference fees up to a maximum of $500 for domestic travel and $750 for international travel. There is no application deadline, and students can apply for a grant at any time after submitting to a conference but before the conference. Awardees will be reimbursed for their expenses after the completion and upon presentation of original receipts. Funds are distributed on a quarterly basis to ensure availability throughout the year. The total amount available each year will vary.

To apply for a grant, please fill out the following form and attach your conference abstract or paper. You may submit your application electronically to lyeta@queensu.ca or you may send a hard copy to Strathy Language Unit, Mackintosh-Corry Hall F406, Queen's University, Kingston, ON K7L 3N6.

In accepting an award, recipients agree to acknowledge the support of the Strathy Language Unit in their presentations and to have the unit and project title mentioned on the Strathy website.

By signing this form, I acknowledge that the above information is true and correct. I agree that should I receive an award, the funds will only be used to pay for travel-related expenses to present at the indicated conference, and that these expenses will be covered by another award. The funds will be distributed to me upon presentation of original receipts and after the conference. I also agree to acknowledge the support of the Strathy Unit in my conference materials and to have my name and project title listed on the Strathy website.
